The Terry Sullivan Trio

Tom Muellner, piano

Scott Mason, bass

Terry Sullivan gives close-up jazz concerts that are reminiscent of a mid-century jazz supper club. Her musicians are among Chicago's leading jazz instrumentalists. Pianist Tom Muellner has been called "a pianist and tunesmith of stellar magnitude" by national jazz critic Neil Tesser. Scott Mason is a classically-trained bassist who migrated to jazz. He has worked with many jazz artists as well as performers such as Aretha Franklin, Bob Hope and The Lettermen.
